MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS BULLETIN

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY

Entered July 2, 1903, at Boston, Mass., as Second Class Matter, under Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

VOL. III.

BOSTON, DECEMBER, 1905

No. 6

The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, incorporated February 4, 1870, is a permanent public exhibition of original works of the art of Egypt, Greece, Rome, the Orient, and modern Europe and America, supplemented by reproductions of others. It is supported wholly by private gifts, and managed by a Board of Trustees including representatives of Harvard University, the Boston Athenæum, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the City and the State, with the coöperation of a responsible staff. Visitors, about 250,000 annually.

A public museum of fine art offers the whole people an unswailing source of interest, improvement, and delight. It is especially the privilege of wealth to further the enrichment of museum collections and their interpretation to the visitor. Opportunities not likely to recur for the acquisition of important objects present themselves continually. The oral and written exposition of the works shown demands highly trained assistance. In the measure of the funds placed at its command by donation or bequest, a museum can both widen and deepen its influence.

The legal title is "Museum of Fine Arts." Names of givers are permanently attached to objects purchased with their gifts.

Tickets to the Museum.

The gift to the Museum of five hundred dollars ($500) or its equivalent in works of art entitles a subscriber to a personal ticket giving admission to the Museum during his life.

Annual Tickets admitting four persons (transferable) are issued to Annual Subscribers of $10.00 and upwards. Subscribers are also entitled to receive, free by post, copies of the Report of the Museum, issued yearly, and the Bulletin, which appears bi-monthly. Cheques should be made payable to the Museum of Fine Arts and addressed to the Assistant Director at the Museum.

Admission by ticket is granted to artists on satisfying the Director of their professional qualification, and for such period as the Director may determine, not exceeding one year.

Free tickets of admission are also issued at the Director's discretion to

(1) Teachers, alone or accompanied by pupils for purposes of instruction in art.

(2) Any student of art or history, when recommended by a teacher known to the Museum; also special students whose course of investigation may be assisted by work in the Museum, and those who are attending special courses of instruction in the Museum.

(3) Designers and other artists employed in industries and duly recommended to the Museum.

Application for free admission under these provisions should be made at the Director's office.

Library and Collection of Photographs.

The Library of the Museum is in the basement, and contains about ten thousand bound and unbound volumes chosen especially for their value to students of art, and illustrative of the works of art in the Museum collection. The Library is open to any visitor to the Museum. The Librarian, or an assistant, is constantly present to give information to readers.

The Photograph collection contains about seventeen thousand photographs of sculpture, architecture, painting, and miscellaneous subjects.

Free tickets of admission are issued at the Director's discretion to special students whose course of investigation may be aided by work in the Library. Application should be made through the Librarian.

School of the Museum.

Chairman, THOMAS ALLEN.

Secretary, Miss Lois L. Howe.

The school gives instruction in drawing, painting, and modelling, with supplementary courses in artistic anatomy and perspective. Scholarships and prizes are awarded annually and diplomas are given to pupils who have satisfied the necessary conditions.

The thirtieth school year began Monday, October 2. The Christmas vacation of one week begins on December 24.

The instructors of the school are:

Edmund C. Tarbell.	Anson K. Cross.
Frank W. Benson.	Edward W. Emerson.
Philip L. Hale.	Miss Mary B. Hazelton.
Bela L. Pratt.

The Department of Design, C. Howard Walker, Director, Miss Katharine B. Child, assistant, gives instruction in ornament and decoration, both theoretical and applied; the study of historic ornament and styles; and the application of ornament to architectural forms.

Inquiries for full information should be made of the Manager of the School, from whom also an explanatory pamphlet may be obtained.

Textile Collection.

The Textile Collection of the Museum consists of nearly 6,000 specimens, embracing examples from all epochs and all parts of the world. Designers or others interested to see portions of the collection not on exhibition are invited to apply to the assistant in charge at the Textile Room on the basement floor, where facilities are provided for study.

Photographs on Sale.

Photographs of many of the objects in the Museum collections may be bought at the Desk at the door.

Copying and Photographing.

Application to copy or photograph any object in the Museum should be made at the Director's office. Easels and space to keep materials are provided for students.

Plaster Casts on Sale at the Museum.

A list of casts for sale from objects in the collection of Classical Antiquities, with prices, will be sent on application to the Secretary of the Museum.

Bulletin.

Copies of the BULLETIN, to which all visitors are welcome, may be found on shelves in the lower and upper stairway halls.

The BULLETIN is sent regularly to all Annual Subscribers, and, upon application, to any other friend of the Museum.

Address the Secretary of the Museum.

Offices.

Students of the various branches of art represented in the Museum collections, desiring information or wishing to see objects not on public exhibition, are invited to apply at the offices shown in the accompanying plan of the basement of the building. The public exhibits of Prints, of Chinese and Japanese pictorial art and of Textiles comprise but a small portion of the collections, and are changed from time to time.
